

5-minute talks

Pick an interesting topic of your choice:

politics, sports, music, news, role models, holidays, films, books, family, hobbies...

Present your topic to the class within five minutes. You can use visual materials to support your presentation. You can use notes for the presentation, but no sentences.

Prepare at least two engaging questions about your topic and lead a class discussion about it.

content	You gave all the important information on the topic.	/ 1
	Your talk was interesting and informative.	/ 1
	Your talk was easy to understand and to follow.	/ 1
	Your talk had a clear structure (introduction - main part - ending).	/ 1
presentation	You spoke loudly, clearly and slowly and were enthusiastic.	/ 1
	You looked at the audience and kept eye contact.	/ 1
	You didn't use full sentences on your notes.	/ 1
	Your talk was within the given time limit of five minutes.	/ 1
	You asked engaging discussion questions.	/ 1
	You led the discussion very well.	/ 1
language	You used correct and appropriate vocabulary.	/ 2
	You used the correct sentence structure.	/ 2
	You used accurate grammar.	/ 2
	Your pronunciation and intonation were on point.	/ 2
bonus	extra supporting material/visuals, exceptional language, wide range of vocabulary, overall good presentation	/ 2
total:		/ 20