

- ① Read the text and fill in the gaps with the words:
looks, helps, good-looking, grey-eyed, naughty, curl.

I know Helen, a little girl. She is very 1) [] . She is 2) [] and dark-haired.

She has got a little 3) [] right in the middle of her forehead.

Helen is a good little girl. She listens to her mother most of the time. When she is good, she is very, very good. She 4) [] her mum about the house and 5) [] after her toys. Then her mother says to her, „Good girl!“

Sometimes Helen is 6) [] . She doesn't listen to her mother. She doesn't want to read. She doesn't want to write. She cries and shouts. Then her mum says to her, „Behave

- ② True or False?

- 1. Helen is fair-haired.
- 2. She always listens to her mother.
- 3. Sometimes Helen is bad.
- 4. She doesn't want to learn.
- 5. Helen is a pretty girl.
- 6. She cries and shouts.

- ③ Write about yourself. Use:

(Your name?) My name is ...

(Your age?) I am ... years old.

(Your looks?) I am ...-haired and ...-eyed.

(Your Likes?) I often

(your character?) I am... . . . most of the time.

Sometimes