Black parents always told their kids that they would be safe from bad officers if they behaved properly.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
Lynching of black men in public with the community being helpless humiliates and intimidates the police.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The message of lynching is: We can do whatever we want to you and you can't do anything about it.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
There will always be police brutality and racism.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
A „third degree murder“ means that somebody said „oopsy“ when they committed the murder.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The pain must be accepted but it should not have the last word.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
African Americans don't want peaceful streets no more.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
