

Australia

① Fill in the gaps.

Australia is a country and a continent in the southern hemisphere (Südhalbkugel) of the world. Its capital is [REDACTED] and its biggest city is [REDACTED]. The native people of Australia are called [REDACTED]. Australia is the home of many dangerous [REDACTED], for example, snakes and spiders.

② What can you see in these pictures? Match.

Bildunterschrift

New Zealand

③ Fill in the gaps.

New Zealand is a country next to Australia.

Its capital is and its biggest city is . The native people are the . The official languages of New Zealand are and . In the language of the Maori, New Zealand is called , which means „land of the long, white cloud“.