

The Civil Rights Movement

① Put the events in the right order (1-5)

- March on Washington
- Jim Crow laws
- The Killing of George Floyd
- March Against Fear
- Plessy v. Ferguson

② What ist meant by separate but equal?

③ Fill in the gaps

Martin Luther King Jr. was a and Nobel Peace Price winner . He protested against , however, those protests were always . His well known speech called is now a special theme of the Civil Rights Movement and still seen as one of the most important speeches ever given in the history of the United States.

- ④ Describe the Black Lives Matter Movement and what led to it having an impact all over the world.

- ⑤  Find out more about one of the topics. Depending on the number you find on your sheet this is the topic you have been assigned to.

- 1. Black Lives Matter
- 2. Jim Crow Laws
- 3. The Civil Rights Movement and Martin Luther King
- 4. The Nation of Islam and Malcolm X

Those questions will have to be answered

- What is your topic about?
- What happened?
- describe important events that occurred during the time of your topic
- describe important people who had an influence on your topic
- describe important concepts.