

① Which one is correct?

- If I make it in time, they would wait for me.
- If I hadn't made it in time, they would have started without me.
- They would have started without me if I don't make it in time.
- If I hadn't been there in time, they start without me.

② Which of these are not Conditional Type 3 sentences?

- If I had met you at the bus stop, we could rehearse the grammar.
- If had been able to eat breakfast, I would have been happy about it.
- If I won the contest, I would have been so thankful.

③ What could have been? Right before the contest, Conny is lost in her thoughts! Help her put them in order to put her mind at ease!

Remember to use the correct form for the Conditional Type 3! (1-8)

- 1) If I (to put on) an alarm in the evening
- I (to oversleep + not) in the morning
- it (to take) me extra time at the entrance to sign up to the contest.
- they (to start) without me.
- 5) If I (to fill in + not) the form in advance,
- 3) If I (to get + not) to the bus stop in time
- I (to arrive) late to the contest.
- 7) If I (to sign up) too late,

I can't believe I almost missed the contest! I am kind of lost in thoughts now...
