

What are Conjunctions?

Conjunctions...

...are words that link other words, phrases and sentences together.

You can distinguish between three different types of conjunctions and each conjunction has different linking words:

Coordinating Conjunctions...

...connect two words or groups of words with the same grammatical structure.

Example:

Marc and Andrew cooked dinner together.

Linking words:

for, and, nor, but, or, yet, so

Subordinating Conjunctions...

...connect dependent clauses with independent clauses.

Example:

I will help you whenever you need me.

Linking words:

although, because, before, until, whenever, if, since, once

Correlative Conjunctions...

...connect words, phrases and sentences with complementary relationships. They are always used in pairs.

Example:

Neither he nor she en-

Linking words:

Either/or, Both/and, Not only/but also, Rather/than,

① Choose the correct conjunction.

a) Do you prefer to eat in a resaurant at home?

b) my friend my sister can help me.

c) I want to have breakfast we can go swimming.

d) I love with him he loves someone else.

e) I was very tired I had to work late.

f) I was feeling better having a cup of coffe.

g) good the movie was I nprefer going to the ② What type of conjunction is it?

This is a...

③ Read the comic and circle the linking words.

④ Write down the linking words that were used in the comic.

⑤ How many linking words can be found in the comic?