

① Take the bilingual dictionary. Open it on pages 326 and 327. What are the words at the beginning and the end of the two pages?

② Can you find hallway on the pages?

③ „half“ has three different entries. What are they?

④ What's the German translation for „half-wit“? Look the German word up and write down the English word. Now check the German translation of the English word.

⑤ Now take the monolingual dictionary. Look up the word „idiot“. Which page is it on? Which entries can you find on the double page?

⑥ What is the synonym given here?
Which information do you get in the two entries?

⑦ On these pages are some words with a key symbol. What does it mean?

⑧ There's also a blue box. What information does it give you?

⑨ At the end of the dictionary you can find green pages. Which one do you think is most helpful?

⑩ Which pages in the monolingual dictionary are especially helpful for you as a German student?

⑪ Create a similar task like the one at the beginning for your classmates.
