

The autumn break is near. Time to reflect on the first weeks of school. Time to sit down, relax and think about what has happened since the start of the school year.

- ① Write down some short notes about yourself and the last few weeks in school. You can use the following ideas to structure your thoughts. Of course you can use your own reflection questions!
- How have you felt in school | in your class so far?
 - Which important things have happened to you in the last few weeks?
 - Did you get into trouble and how did you manage to get out of the trouble?
 - What have you achieved so far?
 - What went really wrong so far?
 - What has been the best | funniest | most important moment to you so far?
 - What would you like to change after the autumn break?
 - What can the school community do for you to make you feel better?
 - What can you do to make the school community feel better?
 - What are you really looking forward to this school year?

- ② Team up with a partner.
- ③ Now find out what your partner thinks about the last few weeks. Interview yourselves by creating a video with the app Texting story or Plotagon.
- ④ When you're finished, you can, if you like to, optimize your video by sending it to the app iMovie and adding an intro and outro for example.

Watch out!

Be authentic in your writing, but please do not use offensive, discriminating or bad language in your interview.
