

Listening: Teenage immigrants

- ①  Listen to a news report about children and teenagers that come to the US as illegal immigrants. Complete the sentences. / 8

1. Most of these illegal immigrants under 18 come from Latin America, for example  and .
2. About  children come to the US illegally without their parents per year.
3. When these teenagers are found by the police and interviewed about why they have come to the US, it becomes very tough for them because .
4. Most of the Mexican children  immediately when they are found near the border.
5. The main reasons why the children leave their home countries are  and .
6. Kang gives the example of a 10-year-old boy from El Salvador whose father was  by his former gang.
7. When children are found at the border, it must be clear that they have not been .
8. Besides, it must be checked whether they are  and that they are in a position to say whether they want to stay or go back home.

Grammar: Conditional Sentences

- ②  Complete the conditional clauses below. The sentences are conditional sentences types 1, 2 or 3. / 10

1. If Jack  his car, he won't get much money for it. (to sell)
2. They  her birthday if they hadn't traveled. (not, to miss)
3. If it started to snow, children  a snow castle. (to make)
4. It  more expensive if we take a taxi. (to be)
5. If Amelia  to the airport, she would have been late for her flight. (not, to rush)
6. If you look out of the window, you  a fantastic view. (to see)
7. Would you be scared if someone  to rob you? (to try)
8. Emma would be surprised if James  to the party. (not, to come)
9. If I  earlier last night, I would have fixed my bicycle. (to come)
10. Matthew will be upset if he  you tomorrow. (not, to see)

---

Grammar: Gerund

---

- ③  Look at the pictures and use the gerund and the preposition below the pictures to describe  / 6 how the people feel.

1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6.

---

Writing: Argumentative Text

---

- ④ ✎ Choose one of the following topics and discuss it by writing an argumentative text with at least two arguments for both sides (minimum 150 words): / 21

Parents always know what is best for their children.

OR:

Early stardom will ruin a child's life.

Content _ 9 pts. | Language _ 9 pts. | Structure _ / 3 pts.

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Use the back of the sheet for more space →

Total points:  / 45

Grade:

Parent's Signature: