Once upon a time, there was a little boy named Max who loved to eat fruits and vegetables. Max's parents owned a fruit and vegetable market, and Max loved to help them sell the produce.

One day, Max went to the market and saw a big, juicy watermelon. He asked his mum if he could have it, and she said yes. Max was so excited to take the watermelon home, but he accidentally dropped it on the ground and it broke open! Max's mum helped him clean up the mess and they found some other fruits and vegetables to take home instead. They got some fresh, crispy apples, some juicy, ripe peaches, and some colourful, crunchy carrots. When they got home, Max's mum showed him how to make a fruit salad with the apples and peaches. Max helped wash the fruits and cut them into small pieces, and then they mixed them all together in a big bowl. The fruit salad looked so colourful and delicious! For dinner, Max's dad made a stir-fry with the carrots and some other vegetables they had at home. Max helped chop the carrots into small pieces, and then his dad cooked them with some broccoli, peppers, and onions. The stir-fry smelled so good and tasted even better! After dinner, Max felt happy and satisfied from eating so many delicious fruits and vegetables. He learned that it's important to eat a variety of healthy foods to stay strong and healthy.
