

①  Pre-reading exercise „mix and match“: Christmas in English-speaking countries

- Match the vocabulary items to their definitions

1) custom

a) a popular side dish, especially during festive meals or as part of a Sunday roast

2) multicultural

b) the remaining or uneaten portion of a meal that has not been consumed during the original serving

3) statue(s)

c) a special day that comes after Christmas Day, usually on December 26th

4) exchange (gifts)

d) large, solid sculptures or artistic representations, typically made of stone, metal, or other durable materials

5) leftover food

e) pictures or photos that show how something looks

6) stocking(s)

f) refers to a situation or society that includes people from many different cultures or cultural backgrounds

7) roast potato(s)

g) the act of giving something and receiving something else in return

8) Boxing Day

h) because of or caused by

9) image(s)

i) a traditional or common way of doing things in a particular society or group

10) due to

j) a small number or a small amount of something

11) few

k) customs, beliefs, and practices that are passed down from generation to generation within a community or

12) tradition(s)

l) can be defined as a piece of clothing worn on the foot and leg, typically made of a thin material, covering the lower part of the leg and sometimes the foot

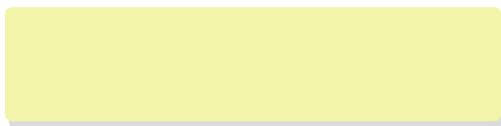

② Pre-reading exercise „can you guess?“

- Guess which statement belongs to which country
- UK, USA or Australia

The day after Christmas is called „Boxing Day“

Christmas happens in the summer

The next day is for eating leftover food and watching TV together as a family

