

- ① Using language and particularly stylistic devices have a huge impact on the readers and listeners for what reason the language use has always a specific function.

The lecture by Adichie includes specific language use and stylistic devices which you are going to analyse.

Please focus on the language aspects below.

register : informal or formal language choice of words : use of adjectives or adverbs; nouns etc.

use of native words : does she use Nigerian languages?

repetition : single words or phrases appear several times understatement: figure of speech used to intentionally make a situation seem less important than it is.

example : a way of helping someone to understand a topic or situation in a better way.

contrast : creating a strong effect by connecting two opposing extremes humor : a literary tool to create amusement or laughter to the audience.