

Rewrite the sentences using a participle construction.

① Joe was playing tennis. He hurt his knee.

② Michael was feeling tired. So he went to bed early.

③ When she finished her work, she went home.

④ When she was asked about the reason for her visit, my aunt didn't say anything.

⑤ Kate is in the kitchen and she is making coffee.

⑥ Kate, who is in the kitchen, is making coffee.

⑦ Eric saw his girlfriend. He was walking down the street.

⑧ Katy often talks to her husband. At the same time she is travelling around the world.

⑨ The boy who was singing was Paul.

⑩ The butterfly that was flying around was beautiful.

⑪ The thieves who are caught by the police are put in prison.

Talking about rules: Answer the questions.

What is the difference between sentences 1 and 3?

What is the difference in the building of the verb forms in 1 & 3?
