

The unexpected rise of the Covid 19-pandemic caused new challenges in the whole world. State leaders of several countries gave speeches to show unity with their people. So did Queen Elizabeth II in March 2020. She delivered a speech to the British people and gave them advice on how to deal with the new situation.

TASK:

Listen to the recording and take notes.

1. Explain the main message of the Queen's speech. (addressee, intention)
2. Describe your own impression of the speech. How did you like it? Did it attract you? Find arguments.
3. 'We Will Meet Again' is the title of this speech. Evaluate the intention of this title. What was the expected effect?

① Define the following words from the speech.

vulnerable
tackling resolute overcome endeavour opportunity compassion

② Evaluate the following statements. Tick the correct boxes.

	right	wrong
The queen says, the new situation has no financial effect on the people.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The queen thanks the NHS workers.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The queen encourages the people to not stay at home and go outside and meet friends.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The queen says, the Britains of this generation will be stronger than any.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The queen talks about a speech she gave together with her brother in 1941.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
The symbol for the unity of the British people is visualised by drawn rainbows.	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>